

IMechE – Hong Kong Branch Project Award for Company

1. Objective

The IMechE – Hong Kong Branch “Project Award” is established since 2014 and organized by the IMechE Hong Kong Branch Award and Recognition Sub-committee to recognize project works, including research and technical study, with significant contributions to the advancement of the mechanical practice in Hong Kong. We would look for good projects or innovative products. In order to give recognition to which have demonstrated outstanding contribution to the Mechanical engineering industry, the Project Award would be granted to these companies by IMechE Hong Kong Branch at the Annual General Meeting of 2018/2019 Session around May 2019.

2. Target Candidates and Eligibility

The nominee for this award will be any project or products, for example, a new product, a new manufacturing approach or a new infrastructural development, from companies which has demonstrated an outstanding contribution to the Mechanical Engineering Industry during 2018/2019 Session. The company needs to submit a paper describing the research, engineering works, and project that contributes to mechanical practices in Hong Kong.

The entries are supposed to be on company basis and not individual.

3. Selection Criteria

Judging panel will be formed by the Hong Kong Branch committee. Each entry will be assessed against the following:

- Demonstration of substantial contribution to the Mechanical Engineering Industry
- Innovation achieved in field of Mechanical Engineering
- Technology employed specialized for/ in relation to Mechanical Engineering
- Consideration on sustainability development taken into account
- Scientific or technical merits and originality of the papers / design as well as their potential contribution to Mechanical Engineering practices in Hong Kong
