Alterations and Additions

The guidelines and rules in this handbook are periodically reconsidered and updated to reflect the evolving priorities and objectives of the International Representative Network.

Suggestions for additions, alterations, suspension or annulment of any of the content contained herein may be presented to the International Strategy Board (ISB) by any member.

1. Introduction

The International Representative Network organises events, seminars, technical lectures and company visits, providing members with networking opportunities, training and experience that otherwise may not be available to them.

This document includes operating guidelines and rules for the International Representative Network, which is governed by the International Strategy Board (ISB). An explanation of the terms used in this document can be found in Appendix A.

For an illustration of the international network structure in relation to the ISB, please refer to Appendix B.

International activities of the Institution are co-ordinated through seven Regions, and more locally focused Branches, Groups, Subcommittees, Panels, Young Member Sections and Student Chapters.

The guidelines and rules set out in this document have been developed to assist the day-to-day operation of the international representative network. The aim is to provide opportunities for flexible working, outlining the aims, current working practice and guidance on best practice to assist Representatives in their roles and responsibilities.

2. Creation and Dissolution

2.1 Creation of Regions, Branches and Groups

The ISB will consider written petitions for the creation or re-alignment of a Region, Branch or Group, which will also require ratification by the Trustee Board at the next available meeting.

The creation of locally focused Subcommittees, Panels, Young Member Sections and Student Chapters is at the discretion of the Region or Branch, but must be reported to the ISB.

When the establishment of a new Region, Branch or Group is approved and funded by the Trustee Board, a first meeting of the members concerned shall be held for the election of the first officers and Committee of the new Region, Branch or Group, at which only Corporate Members shall be entitled to vote.

2.2 Dissolution of Regions, Branches and Groups

The ISB will consider petitions for the dissolution of a Region, Branch or Group upon receipt of written advice from the incumbent Chair of the Region, Branch or Group Committee.

The petition must be accompanied by clear demand with signatures of those members whose recorded addresses are in the area covered by the Region, Branch or Group concerned. There must be a majority of 75% in favour of dissolution.

Regions and all Regional subgroups (that is, all Branches, Groups, Panels, Representatives, Young Member Sections and Student Chapters that fall under the geographical area of one of the seven Regions) may be merged where there is a recognised need (for example, where two or more groups consider that it would be operationally appropriate to formally join forces in the support of the local membership). Mergers would normally occur across two or more adjoining boundaries. A petition to the ISB would be required.

The motion to dissolve/merge would require ratification by the Trustee Board at the next available meeting.

A certified audit carried out by a professional auditor or, where considered appropriate, by an audit board of no fewer than three persons appointed by the Regional, Branch or Group Committee, would be required.

The Chair, Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer of the Region, Branch or Group may not serve as members of an audit board convened for this purpose.

The Trustee Board maintains the authority to disband or merge Regions and/or Regional subgroups any time.

3. Guidelines

3.1 Duration of office

- a) A Chair, Vice Chair, Honorary Secretary, Honorary Treasurer and Ordinary Members of the Committee shall hold office from the date of the Annual Meeting of the Institution following their election until the next Annual Meeting of the Institution. The Regional Chair and Regional Young Member Representative shall hold office from the date of election for a period of three years.
- b) Alternatively, if any have been appointed to fill a casual vacancy, they shall hold office from the date of their appointment until the next Annual Meeting of the Institution. This shall not affect their eligibility for subsequent election.
- c) A member who has served as an elected Chair of any Branch or Panel will be eligible for re-election to the office of Chair for a further period of not more than two years, after an interval of normally two years following last retirement from that office. Regional Chairs and Regional Young Member Representatives will be eligible for re-election to their respective offices for a further period of not more than three years after an interval of normally two years following last retirement from that office.

3.2 Casual vacancy

A vacancy in a Committee not filled at the date of an Annual Meeting of the Institution is a casual vacancy. The Committee may appoint any qualified person, including a past Chair, to fill a casual vacancy on the Committee, including that of Chair. The casual vacancy shall be announced as the Committee may decide.

3.3 Vacating office

A member of the Committee shall automatically vacate office, by notice in writing to the Honorary Secretary, if they resign from the Committee or cease to be a member of the Institution, or the Committee resolves that their office be vacated.

3.4 Voting

Only Corporate Members are entitled to vote at Regional, Branch, Group or Panel meetings.

3.5 Casting vote

The Chair, or a member of the Committee acting as Chair, shall have a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of voting.

3.7 Chairing of meetings

The Chair may appoint a deputy. In the absence of the Chair, the Vice Chair, if any, or the immediate past Chair, is entitled to chair the meeting. In the absence of these officers the meeting shall elect a Chair from those who are Corporate Members or, in the case of Young Member Sections, from those Committee members present.

3.8 Nominations, elections and Annual Meetings

Notice of nominations and the availability of the list of nominees and inviting additions to the list must be given to those members entitled to receive it.

- a) Notice must be given of the date, time and location of the election and Annual Meeting.
- b) In the event of the death, resignation or expulsion of a candidate after nomination and before the announcement of the result of the election, the election of the remaining candidates shall proceed.
- c) The election of Committee members shall, at the discretion of the Committee, be decided by either a show of hands, or a ballot of such members present at the Annual Meeting, or exceptionally by a postal poll of those entitled to vote.
- d) The result of an election shall be announced at the Annual Meeting of the Branch, Region, Group, Panel, YM Section or Student Chapter, and reported in writing to the Regional and International Operations Department and Branch Honorary Secretary or Regional Chair, and published as appropriate.

3.9 Location and timing of Annual Meetings

Annual Meetings of the Branch, Group, Panel, YM Section or Student Chapter shall be held prior to that of the Regional Committee.

It is advised that Annual Meetings be held within the geographical area of the Region or Regional subgroup, no later than ten days before the date of the Annual Meeting of the Institution in the same year.

Annual Meetings may be held in conjunction with Ordinary Meetings.

Refer to Appendix E for a timeline of the election process for Regional subgroups.

Please note that the election process for a Regional Chair and Regional Young Member Representative is carried out by Institution headquarters. Details are available via a separate document entitled International Regional Elections: Criteria and Process.

3.10 Notices of meetings

Notice of Ordinary, Annual or Special Meetings shall be given to members entitled to receive it, at least 14 days before the date of the meeting. No less than seven days' notice of a Committee meeting specifying date, time and location should be given to each Committee member.

3.11 Serving notices on members

Notices may be served upon any member entitled to receive information and are deemed to have been served after three working days.

3.12 Adjournment of meetings

If so directed by the meeting, the Chair must adjourn the meeting. No business should be transacted at a reconvened meeting other than the business left unfinished. If a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.

10. Finances

Regions and Regional subgroups are allocated funds on an annual basis in order to fulfil the strategic objectives of the Institution. Regional Committees are responsible for allocating funds to all subgroups as appropriate, keeping accounts and maintaining communications with the International Development Department.

Funding is approved on a calendar basis. Budget bids for the following year are normally requested in July or August for submission by Regional Chairs by mid-September (or other date specified by Institution headquarters). Bids are collated and consolidated by the International Development Department on behalf of the Institution's Finance Department.

The Finance Department collates the Institution's budget, which is then considered by the Trustee Board. The Trustee Board normally approves the budget in November and Regional Committees are subsequently informed.

10.2 Accounts
